

Michael Courtney

Director / Principal Consultant

25 years' experience in Australian mining, railway & engineering sectors.

Qualifications include a Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering with Honours and a Bachelor of Science from UWA, a Diploma in Business, a Six Sigma Blackbelt and various leadership, asset management and safety certifications.

16 years at Rio Tinto leading teams to improve performance and extend life across the asset base from pit to port.

5 years at Metso Minerals servicing mining customers across Australasia by expanding and running the national network of service centres.

4 years project engineering consulting at MRX Technologies.

Key Skills

- Scoping and implementing services to assist businesses to improve
- Capital program advisory services, portfolio prioritisation, resource smoothing, hands on project management and KPI development
- Developing strong relationships with key stakeholders
- Analysing business cases and return on investment
- Risk analysis, root cause analysis and QA/QC services
- Safety analysis and leadership to improve culture and maturity
- Asset health solutions and asset management services
- Technology and innovation integration
- Team building, organisational development and leadership coaching

A positive person who enjoys a respectful culture in which we succeed as a team. Motivated by problem solving and using innovation to achieve great results.

Perth WA 6025

0490 030405

mcourtney@intensifypro.com

www.intensifypro.com

At Intensify, this experience is further enhanced by a group of industry specialists, enabling the development of customised solutions with well-defined, impactful scopes of work.

